Domaine Specht Pinot Gris 2015

Pinot Gris gives wine that is very rich and high in alcohol. In appearance it shows the same depth of colour as the Gewurztraminer but is less aromatic on the nose. Like the Gewurztraminer, it is spicy on the palate but has higher acidity. In Alsace, it often complement meat dishes. It accounts for 7% of the total crop.

2015 in Alsace – After a wet spring, 2015 has been underlined by a very dry and warm summer. The few August storms gave just enough rain to get a good harvest for both the quality and the yield. The harvest has been early. It started by September 2015 with a nice weather condition.

Alcool : 13% By Vol
