

THIS IS WOODBURNS

A Contemporary Indian Whisky that is free from the definitions of greatness and unbound by the constraints of perfection. Woodburns is one of the first blended Indian whiskies with a leading peat profile.

Dark, distinct and dignified, this whisky is an amalgamation of Indian malts which is built to kindle your curiosity and ignite your senses.

This is a home grown whisky you can truly appreciate.

Woodburns is a blend of 3 Indian malts that are distilled and aged in different regions of India. The whisky is built to highlight the key characteristics of each malt that allows it to shine through in the final blend.

The malts are brought together at Fullarton Distilleries' facility in Goa, where they are vatted together over a period of time.
